

Worshipful Company of Educators

City of London, Friday 16 April 2021

“Educating for the future: In Faith or Anxiety.”

Master Educator Seminar
Monday 19 April from 6pm

Master Educator welcomes Dr Rowan Williams, former Archbishop of Canterbury, to talk about Faith Education in the long-term future.

As part of the 2020-21 Master’s Seminars for the Worshipful Company of Educators, Dr Rowan William will provide a Zoom Webinar, followed by Questions on the topic ‘Educating for the future : in Faith or Anxiety’. Master Educator Richard Evans said:

“We are honoured and pleased that the former Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr Rowan Williams, can add more to the Master’s Seminars series, talking about future faith education in these difficult times.”

During the Pandemic the Master’s Seminars themed on Vision 2030 have continued, with a total of 6 Seminars concluding in June 2021 with Professor Sir David Cannadine FBA, President of the British Academy talking about the Lessons of History. Other Livery Companies have joined The Educators via Zoom for many of these Seminars. Remote and On-Line learning have been part of the work of all practising teachers, lecturers and other educators. The Worshipful Company of Educators under the guidance or the 2020-21 Master, Richard Evans, has used the Pandemic to create a series of Special Internet Groups/SIGs , 8 in total, to meet the needs of Educator Members. Guest are welcomed to all Seminars and SIG Meetings, by contacting The Seminar Secretary : seminarsecretary@co-Educators.com

The Master’s Seminar with main speaker, Dr Rowan Williams, will start via Zoom from 6pm – 7pm on Monday 19 April 2021.
